

Southampton Branch

Kathy Samson, Lead Branch Supervisor

July 1, 2019

Early Literacy Programs: Programs for babies, children, and parents that develop pre-reading skills	Story Time	This preschool program invites preschoolers and their families to come out to play games, read stories, make crafts, learn and have fun. This month a total of 93 children participated.
---	-------------------	---

Community Development: community events, partnered programs with community groups	Books to Go @ Hampton Court	The Books to Go program visited Hampton Court on July 5 and 26, 2019. This month a total of 18 visitors used the program including a new resident. Residents used the program to check out 52 items, renew 21 items, and return 53 items. Popular requests continue to be Amish/Mennonite Fiction, historical fiction and a new request for authors such as James Patterson and C.J. Box.
	Let's Travel - Hampton Court	Eight residents watched two videos where they travelled to two destinations - Australia and Florida - where marine biologists were studying dolphins.

Adult and Senior Programs	Beginners Spanish	A total of 42 participants came out to learn some new Spanish vocabulary.
	Conversational Spanish/French	These weekly programs saw a total of 38 participants.

Technology Based Programs	Tech Coach	We provided one-on-one support to 21 people with technology related questions.
---	-------------------	---

Other Children's and Teens Programs	TD Summer Reading Club	Starters of Storytelling, Hands on Nature and Natural Science programs were offered this month with a total of 86 young people participating. The most popular program was Inukshuk Building.
---	-------------------------------	--

Total Circulation for July	5591 items
-----------------------------------	--------------------------

