Additional Public Consultation Meeting On-line Public Meeting to consider a Draft Plan of Subdivision and a Zoning By-law Amendment Tuesday, January 25, 2022 at 7:00 pm

Revised and new supporting materials have been submitted for Draft Plan of Subdivision and Zoning By-law Amendment applications in Walkerton to create a residential subdivision consisting of detached, semi-detached and townhouse dwelling units. The revised and new supporting materials were provided in response to agency and public comments on the first submission. The most notable changes to the draft plan are to the road/lot layout to reflect a new entrance location to the site.

Know your rights

Section 51(39) of the of the Planning Act outlines rights of appeal for Plan of Subdivision applications. Only the applicant, a public body, various utility company (or their representative), the Minister and the Municipality can appeal the approval or refusal of draft plan of subdivision, lapsing provisions or any condition of draft plan approval.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting, if one is held, or make written submissions to the County of Bruce in respect of the proposed plan of subdivision before the County of Bruce gives or refuses to give approval to the draft plan of subdivision, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision of County of Bruce to the Ontario Land Tribunal.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting, if one is held, or make written submissions to County of Bruce in respect of the proposed plan of subdivision before the County of Bruce gives or refuses to give approval to the draft plan of subdivision, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Ontario Land Tribunal unless, in the opinion of the Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds to do so.

Section 34(11) of the Planning Act outlines rights of appeal for Zoning By-law Amendment applications.

If a person or public body would otherwise have an ability to appeal the decision of the Council of the Municipality of Brockton to the Ontario Land Tribunal but the person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the Bruce County Planning Department before the by-law is passed, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision.

If a person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting, or make written submissions to the Bruce County Planning Department before the by-law is passed, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Ontario Land Tribunal unless, in the opinion of the Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds to do so.
